The Holy Trinity: A Mystery of Love

One way to approach the Trinitarian mystery is to reflect on it according to the role each one plays in salvation history. Let us approach it as a beautiful story of love which comes to us in "three moments."

It begins with the Father's great love. From the book of Exodus, God revealed himself to Moses on Mount Sinai. God is mystery but God let Moses know that he is "merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." God loved us that he taught us how live in his way.

We know from history of God's people how they struggled to respond to the challenging love of God. Moses admitted that the people of Israel (and we) are sinners. They fall, they rise again, but God's love continues to raise them up. He shows himself as Father, a parent who is there to guide his children to a mature relationship of love.

In the struggle of God's people to respond faithfully to God's call to love, we reach the second moment, the coming of Jesus. Through him, we behold how much God loves us. He is the Father's presence in our world, his own Word, communicating the Father's love in his teaching, preaching, healing, and rising. He is God's Son who triumphs over sin and death and breaths the Holy Spirit to his disciples. The Gospel of John summed up the second moment: "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life."

And the third moment of this great story of love, Jesus assures us of the continuing presence of the Father and the Son through the empowering love of the Holy Spirit at work in the community of disciples. The Spirit is the power of God who makes us remember that we are God's children and encourages us to live according to this new identity (Second Reading).

Our faith tells us that in the Three Divine Persons of the Trinity, there is no "first and last," no superior or inferior. Rather, there is love that preserves the image of equality, even in power, and promotes unity in diversity.

From this mystery of the Trinity revealed to us as love derived the strong communitarian nature of the Church. Jesus' disciples cannot be self-contained community, existing only for itself. It must be a community sent out to witness to God who is love, to remedy the divisive individualism which marks our times, even in the Church. It becomes a call to build up the human communion in the pattern of the divine. This communion of love is the source of inspiration of true justice and peace in the world.

POPE FRANCIS

By Carol Glatz, Catholic News

ROME — The sin committed most frequently in Christian parishes and groups is bad-mouthing and backstabbing each other, which not only divides the community, it drives away people who come seeking God, Pope Francis said.

“Truly, this pains me to the core. It’s as if we were throwing stones among ourselves, one against the other. And the devil enjoys it; it’s a carnival for the devil,” he told parishioners in his homily during an evening Mass at a parish on the outskirts of Rome May 21.

Pope Francis told parishioners at the church of San Pier Damiani how important their use of language was. As baptized members of the church, every Christian has been given the gift of the Holy Spirit, he said.

People must continue to pray for and safeguard that gift, which includes using a “special language,” not Latin, he said, but something else. “It is a language of tenderness and respect” that is also mirrored in one’s behavior.

“It is so awful to see these people who call themselves Christians, but they are filled with bitterness” or anger, he said in a homily that was off-the-cuff.

The devil knows how to weaken people’s efforts to serve God and safeguard the Holy Spirit’s presence inside them. “He will do everything so our language is not tender and not respectful,” the pope said.

“A Christian community that does not safeguard the Holy Spirit with tenderness and with respect” is like the serpent with the long, long tongue, who is depicted in statues as being crushed under Mary’s foot.

Pope Francis said a priest once told him about some people in a parish whose tongues were so long from wagging gossip that “they could take Communion from the front door; they could reach the altar with the tongue they have.”

“This is the enemy that destroys our communities — chatter,” he said, adding it was also “the most common sin in our Christian communities.”

A language that boasts or shows off “out of ambition, envy, jealousy” not only divides those already gathered, it drives off newcomers, he said.

How many people step inside a parish in search of God’s peace and tenderness, but instead they encounter gossip, competition and “internal fighting among the faithful.”

“And then what do they say? ‘If these are Christians, I’d rather stay pagan.’ And they leave, disappointed,” he said. “We are the ones pushing them away.”

Family and friends from St. Theresa’s church and school gathered last June 2nd to help Sr. John Joseph celebrate her retirement as principal of the school. Current students and alumni also came to perform hula and song. Others came to give testimonies and words of appreciation for Sister’s many years of guidance and wisdom. Thank you and Good luck, Sister!

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT BY THE INTERNATIONAL CATHOLIC STEWARDSHIP

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

In today's second reading Saint Paul's final appeal is a call for unity. God created that unity. Good stewards who share Christ's life in the Eucharist belong to each other, just as God in the three persons of Father, Son and Holy Spirit enjoy unity. We are an intimate part of God's divine bond, God's "family." Saint Paul maintains that we ought to act that way. In the Church there is a bond of family, yet plenty room for variety. Christian stewards use their uniquely varied gifts to live a Trinitarian faith, in unity, promoting Christ's peace and justice. How do we promote unity in our parish?

SOCIAL MINISTRY

Every 3rd weekend of the month is Hunger Awareness Sunday at the Co-Cathedral of St. Theresa. Our Social Ministry collects approximately 500 pounds of non-perishable food items. Our Parish volunteers package about 30 - 35 bags of groceries each month from your generous contributions.

Next weekend is HUNGER AWARENESS SUNDAY for the month of June. We thank you for your generosity in sharing your blessings. Many of our households live paycheck to paycheck coming up short by $320 each month. Most parents have second and third jobs. Our kupuna and the disabled, those on fixed income are finding it ever more difficult to make ends meet. Through your generosity we are able to help those who cannot get out to shop and are using their income to pay rent or medical bills. We are called to care for our brothers and sisters who are in need.

We ask everyone to bring non-perishable food items to donate when you come to mass next weekend, June 17 - 18. We will distribute the food on Wednesday, June 28, 2017, from 3:00 - 5:00pm at the Social Ministry Office in the Parish Hall. If you, your relative or friends are in need of food assistance, please call the parish office at (808) 521-1700 so we can include you in our list and reserve a bag for you.

No time to shop? We ask you to consider giving financial support to the food assistance program of the Social Ministry of the Co-Cathedral of St. Theresa and we will do the shopping for you.

Do you want to help more? We will be sorting and bagging the food donations on Monday, June 19, at 6:00 - 7:30pm in the Parish Hall. We need volunteers to help us. We hope you can help. Please call the parish office if you plan to come.

We thank you for your generosity and continued support. Let us continue to be good stewards of God's blessings.

On Friday, June 16, please join the ZUMBA Class at 6:30pm in the Parish Hall for fun, fitness and fellowship
